My dear YGEEM,

Congratulations. Your latest blockbuster Play 3ji is another feather to your crown of success in the stage plays.

I have to complement you for the bold presentation of this daringly different stage show. Please don't think I am flattering you because you are aware that praise undeserved is satire in disguise.

Normally, it is easy to take a flippant theme and fill it with irrelevant jokes and just make the audience laugh. But you have experimented with truth as expected by Gandhiji.

In today's fast commercial world, Gandhiji and Nehthaji are forgotten factors and not a selling proposal in politics or in Entertainment Industry. But you have the guts to experiment and revive the spirit of the golden Era of Gandhiji. This is a great service you are doing for the younger generation and posterity. The message is sugar coated and it reaches the target easily with your indomitable style of wit and acting talents.

I congratulate Chitralaya Sriram for his crisp writings and all the supporting characters who are doing very well. Title song and Re-recording are apt and another plus point for the play.

This play has many situations to recollect and re-think on the right track and also smile at the same time. People who laugh a lot are healthier than those who don't. You are making many people to laugh, so you will live for 100 more years with good health, wealth, success and happiness.

With kind regards,

Cordially yours

Dr S V Ramanan
